

over 30 games this year, and I am talking about the Cleveland Indians, then the Atlanta Braves do deserve credit.

It was an agreement both with you and also with the Speaker of the House that if I lost these bets I would wear this tie for the day, and in addition, I am going to be sending pirogies to a hunger center on behalf of NEWT GINGRICH and some bratwurst and some other good Cleveland food, and I offer my congratulations to the Atlanta Braves, to the great people of Georgia, and if I do not get hives too badly, I will wear this all day pursuant to my agreement.

Mr. KINGSTON. You will wear it all day. You may want to wear it next season as well.

MEDICARE SHOULD NOT WITHER ON THE VINE

(Ms. WOOLSEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, Speaker GINGRICH may use warm and fuzzy words like "preserve" and "strengthen" when he is talking about Medicare in front of the cameras.

But when he is talking to the special interests, he sings a different tune.

Last week, he said that while the new majority did not get rid of Medicare in "round one * * * we believe it's going to wither on the vine." I repeat, wither on the vine.

Well, Mr. Speaker, I am from Marin and Sonoma Counties, CA—the home of the world's greatest grapes and wines—and I can tell you that the only things we let wither on the vine are grapes plagued by disease or ruined by drought.

Never, however, would the people of Sonoma and Marin Counties let Medicare—the root of economic and health security for seniors and their families—wither on the vine.

We know that Medicare must be cared for and preserved for generations to come.

Mr. Speaker, if there is anything rotten and sick around here that deserves to wither on the vine it is the Gingrich Medicare scheme, and not Medicare—one of the most popular and successful programs ever created.

OPPRESSION OF THE CUBAN PEOPLE CONTINUES

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, while his decrepit road show passed through the United States, Cuban dictator Fidel Castro made a cynical statement during a pathetic rally in his support, sponsored by our Democrat colleague from the Bronx and attended by some other congressional groupies. Castro commented that "life changes," referring to his acceptance of foreign capitalist investment, to save his failed, repressive revolution.

Life might change for Castro in his desperation to keep power, but not for the Cuban people who continue mired in misery and oppression. In Cuba, human rights violations continue. Political persecution continues. State control over the economy and the press continues. Persecution against those who practice their religion continues. Nothing, nothing has changed over Castro's 37 years of tyranny.

Yes, life changes, but not for the oppressed people of Cuba. Life will only change for the Cuban people once the Communist tyrant is eliminated from power and the Cuban nation can reclaim its freedom.

INTRODUCTION OF THE NO-BUDGET, NO-PAY PLAN

(Mr. DURBIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. Speaker, the Wall Street Journal reported this morning that by a margin of almost 2 to 1, American families are counting on President Clinton to veto the Gingrich budget plan. They know the Gingrich plan cuts Medicare too deeply. It hurts working families, and it cuts education and also cuts health care for the poor in this country. They want the President to reject it.

So how will Speaker GINGRICH put pressure on President Clinton? He will try to shut down the Government. For the first time in our history, the first time in the history of the Nation, Speaker GINGRICH wants the United States of America to default on its national debts. That is not only a disgrace, it is something that will hurt working families across America. It will raise interest rates, causing that mortgage payment to go up. It will mean in some instances people will not see their checks coming from the Government on time. That is disgraceful.

That is why I have introduced the no-budget, no-pay plan. Quite simply, if we follow the Gingrich idea, default, close down the Government, Members of Congress are not paid. Pretty simple, but I think Members of Congress will get the message.

WHERE ARE THE PRESIDENT'S COUNTERPROPOSALS?

(Mr. ALLARD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, only in Washington do they describe an increase as a cut.

Mr. Speaker, the time has come to balance the budget and finally regain control of the ever expanding deficit. Not only have Republicans put forth a plan to balance the budget in 7 years but we have passed it through the House and the Senate. Now the President wants to veto the Republican plan. Well I just have one question. Where are his counter proposals?

President Clinton supports the Republican goals—a 7-year balanced budget, real welfare reform, middle class tax relief, and a sound Medicare system. The administration is trying to have it both ways. They agree with our principles but are unwilling to make the hard decisions necessary to achieve these goals. Americans are tired of the Washington gimmicks and political excuses—if the White House is serious about what they say, it is time to lay their plans on the table.

SAVE MEDICARE

(Mrs. MALONEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. MALONEY. Mr. Speaker, I could stand here and tell you that Republicans in Congress want to end Medicare.

But do not take it from me.

Take it from them.

Here is what the Speaker said about Medicare to a group of insurance lobbyists:

Now, we don't get rid of it in round one because we don't think that's politically smart and we don't think that's the right way to go through a transition period. But we believe it's going to wither on the vine because we think people are voluntarily going to leave it.

In a recent campaign speech, the leader of the other body bragged, and I quote:

I was there, fighting the fight, voting against Medicare, one out of twelve, because we knew it would not work in 1965.

Well, Medicare turned out to be one of the most successful Government programs in American history.

The Republicans say they want to save Medicare.

I say, we need to save Medicare from the Republicans.

UNITED STATES COURTING INTERNATIONAL DISASTER

(Mr. MICA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, the United States under the misguided leadership of President Clinton, is courting another international disaster. President Clinton did not learn in Somalia, where he turned a humanitarian mission into a bungled fiasco, costing dozens of lives and billions of dollars.

President Clinton did not listen when he sailed into Port-au-Prince Harbor and then retreated, leaving us with hundreds of Haitian opponents dead and a costly legacy for which the American taxpayer is still paying billions.

President Clinton did not hear the pleas for a Pan African force to prevent
